

For Immediate Release
October 21, 2015

Media Contact: Laura Bynum
Canadian Public Works Association
Media Relations and Communications Manager
P: 202.218.6736
E: lbynum@apwa.net

Canadian Public Works Association Welcomes Prime Minister-elect Justin Trudeau

OTTAWA, ONTARIO -- The Canadian Public Works Association (CPWA) welcomes the new Prime Minister-elect Justin Trudeau, elected October 19th to lead a national majority government.

“CPWA welcomes Prime Minister-elect Trudeau on behalf of its members and public works professionals in municipalities across Canada. We look forward to meeting and working with the new government as it rolls out its infrastructure plan,” said CPWA President, Kealy Dedman, P.Eng., General Manager/City Engineer of the City of Guelph, ON.

“CPWA is positioned to be an important voice and contributor to the efficient and effective implementation of the new government’s infrastructure initiatives,” said Dedman. “We look forward to working together with the government in the years ahead.”

For more information on the Canadian Public Works Association, visit the website at: www.cpwa.net. For media information about CPWA, contact Media Relations and Communications Manager, Laura Bynum, M.A. at 202.218.6736, or lbynum@apwa.net.

About CPWA

The Canadian Public Works Association (CPWA), or Association Canadienne des Travaux Publics, was founded in 1986 to enhance the services of APWA to the Canadian public works community and to improve the quality of public works products and services to Canadian citizens. CPWA’s 2200 members in Canada, plan, build, operate, maintain and sustain the public works and infrastructure that improve our quality of community life.